The Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

10:00 am Worship
Blessing Our Rwanda Travelers

Welcome to Worship!

During the Sundays of summer, we are re-connecting with our spiritual ancestry as God's people by way of a sermon series—“Old Testament Heroes and Heroines.” Today we look at the story of David & Goliath to uncover several lessons from this favorite of both children and adults. Listen for those lessons... in the sights we see, the music we hear and sing, the words we speak, the care we share... and be grateful we have a God to whom we can offer our thanks.

*The Call to Worship

Those who trust in the Lord are like Mount Zion,
which cannot be moved, but abides forever.
As the mountains surround Jerusalem,
so the Lord surrounds his people from this time on and forevermore.
Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

*Singing Praise to God

*Everlasting God
A Mighty Fortress*

Brenton Brown and Ken Riley
Christy Nockels, Nathan Nockels

The Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, in Jesus Christ you have shown us a more excellent way, a way of love that is greater than all other ways. We confess that we have neglected love. We have failed to receive it, and we have failed to extend it. We tie it up with conditions. We make it conform to our own terms. We cannot escape that it is boundless, unearned, and freely given. Forgive our timid responses to your great gift. Open us to love's possibilities, and expand our view of what love can accomplish, even through us. We pray in the name of the one who is love made flesh, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Our Silent Confession

The Assurance of Forgiveness

Friends, believe the good news of the Gospel.
In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

*Response of Praise    Christ, Be With Me

G.F Handel, arr. Hopson

*Christ be with me, and within me,
Christ behind me and before me,
Christ beside me, there to win me,
Christ to comfort and restore me.*

*Christ beneath me, and above me,
When in quiet, when in danger,
Christ in hearts of all that love thee,
Christ forever, friend, not stranger.*

~att. Patrick (372-466); translated by C.A. Alexander

Ordinary Time

Most of the church year is organized around the two major festivals that mark sacred time —

Christmas and Easter.

The rest of the year is known as Ordinary Time. This term comes from the word "ordinal," which means "counted time."

Ordinary Time begins with Trinity Sunday—after Pentecost, and ends with Christ the King Sunday — the last Sunday before Advent.

The Sundays of Ordinary Time are often used to focus on various aspects of faith, especially the mission of the church in the world. Some ministers use Ordinary Time to focus on specific themes of interest or importance to their congregation, or build sermons around the Lectionary readings.

The sanctuary color for Ordinary Time is dark green, although other shades of green are commonly used. Green has traditionally been associated with new life and growth.
