We Gather in Love

Processional and Opening Hymn

From All that Dwell Below the Skies
(Lasst uns erfreuen) Hymnal No. 229

*The Call to Worship Psalm 34: 1-3 adapted

We will praise God in every moment,
and through every situation.

Through our words and action, my life will pay tribute to God.

Whenever the poor and humble hear of God's greatness,
they will celebrate, too!

Come and lift up God's name with me; let's praise God's name together!

*Singing Praise to God Here I Am to Worship

Tim Hughes

The Prayer of Confession

You call us to be your voices in this world and we stay silent.

You call us to be your hands in this world and we keep them hidden.

You call us to be your feet in this world and we go our own way.

When we meet those who are doubting and say nothing, forgive us.

When we meet those who need your touch and do nothing, forgive us.

When we are called to walk with others and carry nothing, forgive us.

Breathe courage into our lives and the strength to declare with heart and soul and voice that you are our God. Amen.

Our Silent Confession

The Assurance of Forgiveness

Friends, believe the good news of the Gospel.

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

*Response of Praise Shukuru Yesu —Thanking You, Jesus Traditional Sudanese

*Sharing the Peace of Christ

The Peace of Christ be with you all.

And also with you.

*The Doxology

Please join in singing verses 1 and 2 (projected) and the final verse, below:

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;

Praise God, all creatures here below;

Praise God above, ye heavenly host;

Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

After the Doxology, Marlene Chapin will lead the children to Fellowship Hall for snack, music and art.

The Offertory Anthem A Prayer for Unity

Jeffrey H. Rickard

*This is my song, O God of all the nations,
a song of peace for lands afar, and mine;
This is my home, the country where my heart is,
here are my hopes, my dreams, my holy shrine;
But other hearts in other lands are beating with hopes and dreams as true and high as mine.*

*We are created children of God's love,
sisters and brothers of God's own dear son.*

*Descend, O Holy Spirit, like a dove into our hearts, that we may be as one:
as one with you, to whom we ever tend;
as one with Christ, our brother and our friend.*

*We would be one in hatred of all wrong,
one in our love of all things true and fair,
one with our joy that breaks forth into song,
one with our pain that quiets into prayer,
one in the power that makes your children free
to follow truth, and serve you faithfully.*

*This is my prayer, O Lord of all earth's kingdoms:
your kingdom come, on earth your will be done.*

*Let Christ be lifted up 'til all shall serve him,
and hearts united learn to live as one.*

*O, hear my prayer, great God of all the nations:
myself I give; now let your will be done.*

*“Prayer for Unity,” is offered in the spirit of compassion and healing in light of events around the world and in our own country.
May we all learn to live as one, as Christ has taught us.*

Ordinary Time

Most of the church year is organized around the two major festivals that mark sacred time —

Christmas and Easter.

The rest of the year is known as Ordinary Time.

This term comes from the word "ordinal," which means "counted time."

Ordinary Time begins with Trinity Sunday—after Pentecost, and ends with Christ the King

Sunday — the last Sunday before Advent.

The Sundays of Ordinary Time are often used to focus on various aspects of faith, especially the mission of the church in the world. Some ministers use Ordinary Time to focus on specific themes of interest or importance to their congregation, or build sermons around the Lectionary readings.

The sanctuary color for Ordinary Time is dark green, although other shades of green are commonly used. Green has traditionally been associated with new life and growth.

We Go Forth to Serve

The Prayers of the People and The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

*Sending Forth O Worship the King, All Glorious Above, V. 1 and 2 Hymnal No. 476

Verse 3: Then let us adore, and give God his right,
All glory and power, all wisdom and might,
All honor and blessing, with angels above,
And thanks never ceasing, and infinite love.

Mighty to Save

Ben Fielding, Reuben Morgan

*The Benediction

*Song of Parting May the Love of the Lord Maria Ling-Poh & Swee Long
We invite you to join us in singing this blessing.
