We Gather in Love

The Introit O Give Thanks Unto the Lord

Eric Thiman

Please stand for The Call to Worship

The God of our ancestors has led us to this place.

We are witnesses.

We have sworn to teach God's promises to all generations.

We are witnesses.

The time is coming when Christ will come again in glory.

We are witnesses.

Let us tell the world of God's faithful love.

We will worship and witness together!

The Hymn of Praise We Thank You Lord, for You are Good
Verses 1, 2, and 4

Hymnal No.243
(Was Gott tut)

The Prayer of the Day

The Gloria Patri

Hymnal No. 579

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

You may be seated.

The Prayer of Confession

Lord, you provide rushing waters to quench our thirst, and we complain about vast deserts. You shower us with love and guidance, and we whine about all the work placed before us. You give us gifts for healing and building and we cast those gifts aside. Forgive us the very many times when we are angry, greedy, lazy and weak. Pick us up, O Lord, and heal those wounds that we can serve you more effectively. Dust us off, O Lord, and place us on pathways of peace. Embrace us, the apathetic and ignorant ones, the angry and greedy, with your mercy and justice that we may grow in your spirit to live lives of great compassion and witness to your love and power for all people. We pray these things in Jesus' name. AMEN.

Our Silent Confession

The Assurance of Forgiveness

Friends, believe the good news of the Gospel.

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Please stand to share The Peace of Christ

The peace of Christ be with you all.

And also with you.

All Saints' Day is a Christian festival celebrated in honor of saints— those known and unknown. In Western Christianity, All Saints Day is celebrated on November 1, and so we recognize the Sunday following as “All Saints Sunday.”

Christian celebration of All Saints' Day stems from a belief that there is a powerful spiritual bond between those in heaven and the living. During the Celebration of the Lord's Supper today we remember those in our church family who have passed on to the “Church Triumphant” in the past year. They are—

Jose Asturias
John Frautschi
Dick Henshaw
Jean Manchester
Susan Olstadt
Carol Sherbeck

“Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us.”
~Hebrews 12:1.

The Doxology

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

You may be seated.

Children ages 3-10 are excused at this time for Children's Chapel in the Sunday School rooms downstairs.

The Celebration of the Lord's Supper

*ALL are welcome —“The invitation to the Lord's Supper is extended to all - remembering that access to the Table is not a right conferred upon the worthy, but a privilege given to the undeserving who come in faith, repentance and love.”

Please stand for the Affirmation of Our Faith (read responsively)

The communion of saints, called from the entire human family, is united by God.

As the people of God, we love one another.

We experience, practice, and pursue community with one another.

We give ourselves willingly and joyfully to one another.

We are a benefit and blessing to one another.

We share one faith and have one calling.

We are one body, and are of one soul and mind.

We have one God and Father.

We are filled with one Spirit.

We are baptized with one baptism.

We eat of one bread and drink of one cup.

We confess one name and are obedient to one Lord.

We work for one cause and share one hope.

All: Thanks be to God.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever.
Amen.

The Invitation to the Table and The Great Thanksgiving
The Lord be with you. And also with you.
Lift up your hearts. We lift them up to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise...

Sanctus Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of hosts; John Rafoth
Heaven and earth are full of thy glory! Glory be to thee, O Lord most high;
Blessed is he who cometh in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.
Great is the mystery of our faith:
Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.
