Celebration of the Lord's Supper
The Fifth Sunday after Epiphany
9:00 am Classical Worship

Welcome to Worship!

"I was glad when they said to me, 'Let us go into the house of the Lord!'" ~ Psalm 122:1

The psalmist approached Jerusalem with a sense of expectation, eagerness and anticipation, and was glad to be invited into the "house of the Lord."

What spirit and attitude do you carry as you prepare to join others for worship?

This week, choose to take with you the joyful spirit of expectation in our God — and be glad!

The Prelude

We invite you to personally prepare for worship during the Prelude, and respect the quiet atmosphere of the Sanctuary during this time.

They shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint.

The Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, in Jesus Christ you have taken upon yourself our human existence, to redeem us from the brokenness of our sin.

Yet we hide from your light; we resist your rule. We fail to proclaim the good news of your love. Even when we strive to fulfill your will, we fall too easily back into disobedience. Grant us your mercy,

God of grace. Do for us what we cannot do for ourselves: establish in us the righteousness you desire. Strengthen the presence of your Spirit, to lead us in living for Christ and his kingdom, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

The Celebration of the Lord's Supper

Please stand for The Affirmation of Faith The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit; born of the virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and buried. He descended to hell.

The third day he rose again from the dead.

He ascended to heaven and sitteth at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty.

From thence he will come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

You may be seated.

The Invitation to the Table and The Great Thanksgiving

May God be with you.

May God be also with you.

People of God, open your hearts.

We open our hearts to God and to each other.

Let us give thanks to the living God.

With joy and praise, we offer our thanks to the One who offers abundant life...

Sanctus Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of Hosts! John Rafoth

As we would proclaim the Gospel, may we find that mystery we call faith:

Christ died, not boasting in himself;

Christ was raised, the gospel lived out in him;

Christ will come to take us by the hand, giving us strength.

Bryn Calfaría

Today's Postlude is the tune name of two hymns in the Presbyterian Hymnal: No. 154 and 213.

"Bryn Calfaría" translates from the Welsh as "Hill of Calvary."

Composer William Owen was a Welsh quarryman, and may have originally written the melody on a piece of slate.

Thus it is fitting that the great church musician and composer, Erik Routley, has called this melody "a piece of real Celtic rock."
