Meet Our New Director of Vision Ministry, Rich Henderson!

I am glad to be a part of this staff team, in this church, in this season. I anticipate learning much and trust that what I've gained in the past decades of non-profit and church leadership will come to bear for our good.

Contact Your Reps Night

An effective way to work for justice is to tell your elected officials of your concerns. Jesus calls us both individually and as a church body to speak out against injustice. REFUGE invites you to join us on Monday, March 26 6:30pm, in the Lake Room. We'll make some phone calls and make plans for a group visit to one of our representatives.

Questions? Email Mary at dmstrait@charter.net.

Congratulations to Dale and Marlene Chapin on the birth of their grandson Luca Santiago Bardles on March 7!

Minute for Mission - Mann Scholars
Sunday, March 18, during both services

For the past 20 years the Mann Scholars Program has been supporting first generation students of color while in high school to ensure successful high school graduation and preparation for their pursuit of higher education. Christ Presbyterian Church has been an amazing community supporter of the program offering large and small group meeting space and the guidance and leadership of many church members on the Board of Directors and Advisory Board. We would like to share a brief history of our the Mann Scholar Program and the positive outcomes of the Scholars and their families.

Summer 2018 trip to Egypt, May 20-June 2 or 8

Join a team visiting our sister-church in Alexandria, Egypt, this summer:

- Explore next steps in our decades old partnership and build relationships with church members
- Learn about the current state, culture, and history of Egypt, including antiquities and denominational history
- Volunteer with social programs at our sister-church, such as Fairhaven School, refugee supports, women's programs, medical services, etc.

If you are interested in learning more about this opportunity contact Morgan Smallwood at msmallwood@wisc.edu.
