Moving From Charity to Justice – A Workshop in Faithful Advocacy

CPC's Refuge group invites you to participate in this non-partisan justice advocacy training presented by WI Voices for Justice. Participants will be introduced to the challenges and opportunities for personal and group engagement in advocacy. When: Wednesday, May 30, June 6, and 13, 7-9pm, at CPC. Attend one, two or all three sessions. Suggested donation: $10/session. Questions? Email Mary at dmstrait@charter.net.

Breakfast on the Farm – Saturday, June 9

During this trip, internationals will have the opportunity to enjoy breakfast while exploring the farm and many other activities. The breakfast menu includes pancakes, scrambled eggs, sausage, cheeses, ice cream, milk, and coffee. In addition, samples of other dairy products will be offered in the Expo Area. Admission is free for children under 2; $4 for children aged 2-11; and $8 for anyone over age 11. We will leave from Memorial Union at 8am and come back to Madison around noon.

RSVP to Jean-Rene at jeanrene@cpcmadison.org or (608) 217-3008.

Save the date for our next Third Space event!

Yoga & Bach in the Park – June 12, 7pm

Experience Yoga and meditation to the sounds of Bach's Suites for Solo Cello and overlooking Lake Mendota near sunset.

The class will be held outside in Giddings Park, located directly behind Christ Presbyterian Church (CPC). Guests are encouraged to park in the CPC lot. Bring your own mat (a beach towel works just fine!) Childcare is available by RSVP only (ages 6 and under). Please call the church office (257-4845) by Friday, June 8.

Farewell, Mary Kienitz - Sunday, June 17

Join us for a light lunch and a chance to say goodbye before Mary and her husband Marty move to California in July. Mary has been involved in some way in just about everything at CPC since 1989. All are welcome at this send-off, but please RSVP to Kathy Otterson (kathy@cpcmadison.org) by June 12 if you plan to attend.

The Story Behind our Current Art Exhibit

Come hear the powerful story behind our current art exhibit: "Faces of Incarceration-Changing the Narrative." The CPC Visual Art's Team invites you to join us on June 17, at 11:15am, in the Chapel where artist John Mix will talk about the idea behind the exhibit's creation and the art's impact.

Welcome New Members!

Jim Hubbard was born and raised in Omaha, Nebraska. He and Lucy married as he started Seminary, at Bethel College in St. Paul, Minnesota. As a Baptist pastor, Jim served congregations in Nebraska, North Dakota, Colorado, Illinois and Indiana. After his wife Lucy died in 2000, Jim moved to Orlando, Florida with his daughter, Ruth. Two summers ago, they moved to Madison. Jim has been worshipping at Christ Church for over 18 months and looks forward to building relationships in this warm community.

Ruth Hubbard is a VP with InterVarsity Christian Fellowship, giving leadership to Urbana. Before joining InterVarsity in 2016, Ruth invested 14 years with Wycliffe Bible Translators, first as a Graphic Designer and then in various leadership roles, including six years as Senior VP and four as Chief Culture Officer. Ruth has also served as the Director of Children's Ministry at a EVFree Church in Indy and as a Literature/Art/Bible teacher at a Christian high school. Ruth shares a home on Madison's northeast side with her dad where she enjoys cooking and gardening. She is a rock-collector and hammock-napper who enjoys exploring cultures through the arts and travel.

Am I Yours?
